Dear Bill:

The Republican Congressional Leadership Council will meet in Washington D.C. for their annual Fall Briefing on September 10, 1987. I'd like to take this opportunity to invite you to speak to the members of this group at our upcoming meeting.

RCLC members contribute between $2,500 and $5,000 to the NRCC each year. This amounts to in excess of 3 million dollars for our House Candidates each election cycle.

Our RCLC members are concerned and interested in the political issues of the day so the NRCC organizes two national briefings each year. At these meetings, our members are briefed by Members of the Cabinet, senior White House officials, Members of Congress and other key political leaders. The list of those who have been part of our program is quite lengthy, however in this last cycle the RCLC enjoyed meeting and hearing from Frank Carlucci; Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, Secretary of the Treasury; James Baker, President Gerald R. Ford; Director of the Office of Management and Budget, Jim Miller; Dr. Henry Kissinger and Clayton Yeutter; U.S. Trade Representative just to name a few.

Our schedule for the meeting is still flexible, and we would be more than willing to arrange a mutually convenient time for your talk. We have allocated 45 minutes for you and ask that you divide your time between remarks and questions.

As a highlight of our meeting, the Vice President and Mrs. Bush have invited us for a buffet supper at their home on September 9th. As a speaker on our program we'd like to invite you to join us.

I know your participation in this event would guarantee a major success. Thank you for your consideration and I will be in touch with you in the next few days to confirm your attendance.

Sincerely,
